Thekla Reuten

Nazionalità: italiana, olandese

Lingue: olandese, inglese, italiano, tedesco, francese, fiammingo

Thekla Reuten is firmly established as one of Europe's leading actresses. She has a Dutch father and an Italian mother. By the age of 17, she joined Amsterdam University of the Arts. Straight after graduating, Thekla landed her first leading roles. Belgian film Everybody Famous was nominated for an Oscar. Her captivating role of Lotte, another Oscar nominated film Twin Sisters was her big break. She was Shooting Star at the Berlinale the same year.

Ever since she has played in over 60 productions and has been celebrated widely. Although film and television have become her main focus, she started out in theatre and also loves singing. She is a strong believer in the power of stories and is currently co-developing various projects. Aiming to both entertain and enlighten people, she pursues stories that nurture your mind and open your heart. Leaving you more empathic, towards yourself and others.
